FIBP Report 8/20/2020

As the summer season comes to a close, FIBP will operate with a smaller staff. This will force the Beach Patrol to shut down selected stands to ensure adequate beach coverage. Please ask the lifeguard for swim conditions and as always swim near a lifeguard.

The Beach Patrol is proud to announce the following lifeguard awards. This year's Lifeguard of the Year goes to James Shiels. James is a four-year lifeguard and has served as a leader among his peers. He is a great athlete and motivates everyone around him. Rookie of the Year was given to Jackson Woodward. Jackson was an outstanding new guard. After his training, he quickly exemplified what we look for in an employee. He is prompt, determined, and dedicated to the lifesaving job. Both these awards were selected by their Beach Patrol peers. The captain's award was given to Jake Troublefield. Jake is one of the patrols Crew Chiefs and is a six-year veteran. I place a great deal of responsibility on my supervisors. Jake has responded to this responsibility with exemplary actions every day. He is looked up to by everyone on the patrol and never has a bad attitude about any assignment. I am proud to work with each of these lifeguards and am honored to give them these awards.
